The Felledgefest is a creative community event. Families are welcome. Participants at the festival are responsible for their own safety and for their possessions. Children remain the responsibility of the parent/carer at all times. In using the carpark you accept that we cannot be held responsible in any way for your selves, your property or your vehicles. by entering the festival sites you are giving permission for yourselves to be recorded (photographic, film, video, sound or any other) for possible broadcast or publication. Whilst every effort is made to ensure that information given on the website and flyer is correct we cannot be held responsible for any inaccuracies or if any of the acts or workshops advertised do not take place. We do not condone the use of illegal substances. There is no bar but you are welcome to bring alcohol. We reserve the right to refuse permission of entry to anyone at any time. No dogs are allowed. Fires only in designated sites. [In the above statement 'We' refers to Felledgefest and its organisers]
